

I do not wish for the Consumer Bankers Association to win the right to phone me or anybody who does not want their phone calls. Any one of these organizations who doesn't have a business relationship with me should never feel welcome to call me. Those who do should call only when it is absolutely necessary to speak with me.